

Happy Halloween by Anonymous Oct 2013

Note: This mission will appear in FMsel as 'Halloween'

Note: This mission was intended as an entry for the 2013 Halloween contest but was withdrawn from the contest. It would appear to be an unfinished mission as you get no objectives and the mission does not finish.

Mission map

There are only 3 caves in this mission, the large crystal behind you at the start acts as a Special Loot Item (500g) and there are 7 silver nuggets (100g each) scattered around the 3 caves as well as a Handful of Gems (200g) in a chest in the second cave. What is probably the exit area is through a tunnel in the SW area of the third cave.

When entering the zombie area you sometimes get lucky with the female pagan, as she can get to kill all the zombies for you.

Note: 2 of the silver nuggets are buried in the ground and are almost impossible to see (a slightly lighter area on the ground) so you need to blind frob to find them.
