There are seven secrets in this mission:

Secret 1: At the mission's beginning.

Secret 2: A button inside the fire opens a floor panel two floors below this one.

Secret 3: Frob the book to open a floor panel, revealing another elevator.

Secret 4: Frobbing the telescope opens a secret door in this attic. Located in the bell tower district.

Secret 5: A button in this statue's eye opens a secret door.

Secret 6: Enter this closet and check the door casing for a lever. If you stand inside the closet, this will prevent the door from opening. Instead, lean into the closet and blind-frob the lever.

Secret 7: Frob this torch to open a secret door at the end of the hall. Located through a west window next to Lady Louisa's house.

Objectives:

- Loot Goal: 1000 (Normal), 1550 (Hard), 2000 (Expert)

TIP

You can save your cash on the two tips at the load-out screen. Go ahead and buy them, start the mission, and read them. Then restart the mission, only this time, DON'T buy them.

Once you get into Angelwatch, clicking on any of the Victrola players cancels out one objective and replaces it with this one:

- Activate all the voice machines to hear Karras' messages.

When you read Gavin's letter on the desk on Angelwatch's 4th floor, this last goal appears:

- Steal all nine statues in Angelwatch. (Optional)

Where is the Cetus Project info?

Karras' office, 5th floor, behind the seascape painting. Button to open is under desk.

Where are the nine statues?

They are all in plain sight throughout the tower and go into your inventory as loot. See loot list for exact locations.

Where is Karras' latest entry?

5th floor. Look for a panel inside the mechanical gear room.

Where are all of the voice machines?

There is one machine on each of the 6 floors in Angelwatch.

1. South end of main concourse, 1st floor.
